

Reflect on your practices and consider how many you

'do with' vs 'do to'

Doing 'to' is about us getting what we need, and is often the quickest solution. Doing 'with' is about respect, trust, and collaboration. Below are some benefits of working 'with' different stakeholders.

With...

Children

Supports children's rights

Provides agency to children

Builds trusting relationships

Positive word of mouth marketing

Builds knowledge of practices

Develops reciprocal relationships

With...

Families

Connects staff to the service

Creates collaborative discussions

Minimises staff turnover

With...

Staff