

Self-assessment Prompt #22

How do you provide children opportunities to continue working on projects they haven't finished instead of packing it away? Think about art, construction etc.

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #25

How do you engage in a systematic approach to critical reflection in your organisation? Why is this important?

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #21

How do you address input or feedback from families? How is this communicated to the families? Why is this important?

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #24

How do you recognise the learning that children of all ages are engaging with as they play? How do you support children in their play-based discovery?

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #20

How do you support families in their parenting role? How does this differ for individual families? Why is this important to offer?

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #23

How do you provide children a sense of security in the way you set up the environment? Why is this important? What can happen if you make constant changes?

www.rare.support

Self-assessment Prompt #19

How do you support families in their parenting role? How does this differ for individual families? Why is this important to offer?

www.rare.support

